

Monday through Friday
from 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Saturday & Evening Hours Available

APAC
Centers for Pain Management™

www.apacgroupe.com

Timothy King, MD

Dr. King is the founding member and Chief Medical Officer of APAC. He completed his Anesthesiology Residency at the University of Washington, where he had the opportunity to be mentored by one of the pioneers of Pain Management, Dr. John Bonica. Dr. King has directed acute and chronic pain services at major hospitals and surgery centers for over 25 years. He is Board Certified in Anesthesiology and Pain Management.

Dmitry Novoseletsky, MD

Dr. Novoseletsky studied Physical Medicine & Rehabilitation at the University of Rochester in New York, where he also served as Chief Resident. He completed his fellowship via the Interventional Pain, Spine, and Musculoskeletal Program at the Spine Technology and Rehabilitation Center. He is also a member of the American Society of Interventional Pain Physicians (ASIPP) and the American Academy of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation.

Suleiman Salman, DO

Dr. Salman specializes in spine pain, including neck and lower back pain, sciatica, peripheral neuropathy, and arthritis pain. He completed his Pain Fellowship from the University of Chicago and had his Anesthesiology Residency at Loyola University. He graduated with honors from Loyola's Medical School and was on the University of Chicago's Dean's List. He is Board Certified in Anesthesiology and Pain Management.

Thomas Pang, MD

Board Certified in PM&R and Electrodiagnostic Medicine (EMG/NCV), Trained at Northwestern/RIC, Teaching at Rush for the past two decades, In addition to Physiatry, Dr Pang brings his interest and expertise in: Neurologic Rehabilitation, Spasticity Management, Ultrasound guided procedures, Failed Back, Musculoskeletal and Functional Rehabilitation, complementing the Comprehensive Pain Paradigm at APAC.

Randolph Chang, MD

Dr. Chang is the Illinois Director of APAC. He specializes in Pain Management and Interventional Spine procedures. He received his Medical Degree and completed his Anesthesiology Residency and Pain Fellowship training at Rush University Medical Center. He is a member of the American Academy of Pain Management (AAPM), the American Pain Society (APS), and the International Spine Intervention Society (ISIS). Dr. Chang has been an established pain management physician in Chicago for over 20 years. He is Board Certified in Anesthesiology and Pain Management.

Bo Headlam, MD

Dr. Headlam is Board Certified in Pain Management and Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation. He completed his medical training at Loyola University Medical Center. He is a member of the International Spine Intervention Society (ISIS), the North American Spine Society (NASS), and the American Society of Interventional Pain Physicians (ASIPP). Dr. Headlam specializes in interventional spine procedures in the neck and low back, as well as electrodiagnostic testing.

Todd Hagle, MD

Dr. Hagle is Board Certified in Anesthesiology and Board Eligible in Pain Management. He graduated from the Missouri School of Medicine and completed Fellowships in Anesthesia and Pain Management at Rush University Medical Center. He is a member of the International Spine Intervention Society (ISIS) and the American Society of Regional Anesthesia and Pain Medicine (ASRA). Dr. Hagle's primary interests are in back and neck pain, peripheral neuropathy, and a multi-disciplinary approach to pain management specializing in interventional spine procedures.

Weiss Hospital

4646 North Marine Drive
4th Floor - Suite A4350
Chicago, IL 60640

Phone: (773) 564-5205

Fax: (773) 564-5791