Seasons Hospice & Palliative Care

OUR MISSION

Honoring Life ~ Offering Hope

What is Our Promise?

Nearly all people who face a terminal condition express the same concerns, which are the presence of pain and the fear of abandonment.

To ease these universal apprehensions, Seasons Hospice makes two promises to our patients and their families.

We promise to enhance the quality of time by managing pain and other symptoms that can diminish the character of a patient's remaining days, weeks, months. And we promise that our patients and families will not feel alone.

What Services are Provided?

- Regular visits by registered hospice nurses with specialized training in pain and symptom management.
- Visits by hospice home health aides to provide additional personal care, time, and attention.
- Psychosocial support for patients and families, as well as for the long-term staff and care givers.
- Spiritual support for patients and families.
- Trained volunteers who provide companionship, assistance, and support.
- Bereavement counseling and support for family members and significant others throughout the patient's illness and for a minimum of 13 months after death.
- Consultation and emergency care 24 hours a day, every day.
- Coordination of medical equipment for comfort and symptom management.
- Physical, occupational, speech, music, and other therapies as indicated in the plan of care.
